

Olympic Surfing

Barrel

This move requires a surfer to go inside the opening of a large wave. Then the surfer rides through the wave and out the other side.

Air

When a surfer flies out of the water with the board and into the air. The Surfer rotates and lands on the wave.

How is Olympic Surfboarding Scored?

There are five judges. Surfers are scored based on their special maneuvers, commitment and flow. A Surfer's best two wave scores are added together for their final score. A perfect score for a single wave is ten.
